

STUDENTS SERVICES

LIBRARY OF THE SCHOOL OF ECONOMIC AND BUSINESS STUDIES

The Library of the School of Economic and Business Studies was created joined with the Faculty in 1971, being located in 1977 in the building where it is now.

With the rest of the Libraries of Faculties and Schools and the General Library, it is a part of the functional unit that constitutes the University Library of Seville, according to the Statutes of the University.

Its mission is being a support for the study, teaching and research for the members of the Faculty and the rest of the university community.

It occupies part of the ground floor and a part of the first floor of the School. The Consultation Room, with 264 consultation positions, is on the ground floor. Manuals, works of reference and the last numbers of some periodic publications can be consulted there. In addition, there is a small room destined to the Specialized Bibliographical Information. On the first floor, there is the library deposit.

The library has at present time 39.500 monographs, 1323 periodic publication (magazines and yearbooks) of which 626 are in course and 21 data bases. The access to the materials is made by means of software FAMA, and any consultation can be made it by internet in fama.us.es

These services have been assembled, according to their nature and content, in different areas.

Specially interesting for foreign students are the following:

- Bolsa de alojamiento y Vivienda
- "La bolsa de Alojamiento del SACU" offers information and advising concerning the different housing modalities for students:
- Colegios Mayores y Residencias
 - Pisos en Alquiler
 - Habitación en Familia

Using our "Bolsa de alojamiento" (for this the student have to prove that he/she is a member of the University Community), you will be able to obtain for free data of the lodgings available as well as legal advice related to any problem that could arise in relation with it.

- Service of Attention to the Foreigner

This service was created to take care of the more and more important sector of foreign students and professors at the University of Seville. An interpreter attends the members of this sector in all those situations in which Spanish is necessary. These are helped to solve any problems during their stay in Seville.

There is also a Service of Linguistic Exchange, in which the Spanish students can score as much as the foreigners with the purpose of promoting the cultural and linguistic exchange between the multiple nationalities in the university community.
