

Revistas Académicas Relevantes FCEYE

Listado por campos de investigación

La Facultad de Ciencias Económicas y Empresariales ha elaborado un listado de Revistas Académicas Relevantes del centro, organizado por campos de investigación. El listado aspira a recoger las principales revistas que nuestros investigadores utilizan para su investigación, tanto para consultar como para enviar sus artículos. Para ello, se ha contado con la colaboración del Instituto Universitario "Tomás de Mercado" de Economía y Negocios de la Universidad de Sevilla (IUSEN), y de un elevado número de compañeros que han participado en la recogida de datos.

Para su elaboración se ha partido de las revistas indicadas por nuestros investigadores, dado su carácter de especialistas en sus respectivos campos de investigación. También se ha pedido a estos investigadores que señalaran campos de investigación de interés no recogidos en la propuesta inicial. Ese listado de revistas propuestas ha sido depurado posteriormente mediante un doble procedimiento:

- En primer lugar, se han seleccionado aquellas revistas incluidas en el Academic Journal Guide 2021 (Chartered Association of Business Schools, Reino Unido).
- En segundo lugar, para las restantes revistas, se han seleccionado aquellas que se encuentran recogidas en las siguientes áreas del Social Science Citation Index (SSCI, Web of Science): Business; Business, Finance; Development Studies; Economics; Management.

De esta forma, se aúnan la perspectiva de los investigadores (revistas que se consideran relevantes por los miembros del centro), con la validación externa (revistas reconocidas en los campos de economía y empresa). El campo de "Ciencias Jurídicas", propuesto por algunos investigadores del centro, ha constituido la única excepción. Este campo se caracteriza por ser españolas todas las revistas propuestas, y no estar ninguna incluida en las bases de datos de referencia. Se ha decidido incluirlas todas.

Como norma general, las revistas señaladas en más de un campo se han asignado a aquel en el que encajaban mejor, siempre que ha sido posible. En cambio, las revistas con un alcance más amplio (por ejemplo, "Journal of Management"), se han mantenido en todos los campos en los que encajaban por su temática. En cualquier caso, todas las revistas recogidas en cualquier campo se consideran Revistas Académicas Relevante FCEYE.

La tabla adjunta recoge el listado de las Revistas Académicas Relevantes FCEYE, junto con su ranking en la AJG2021 (de mayor a menor: 4*, 4, 3, 2, 1) o el área del SSCI en el que está incluida.

Expresamos nuestro agradecimiento a todas las compañeras y compañeros que han contribuido a la elaboración de este listado, sin cuya aportación habría sido imposible construirlo.
