Credits per Subject

Each subject has normally 60 class hours (contact hours). UnB does not use a credit system, but an hour-based system.

Recommended Study Load

We highly recommend taking between 240 to 360 class hours per semester. Per semester, a minimum study load is 180 class hours; a maximum study load is 450 class hours.

The learning agreement must contain a proposal with at least 6 courses. After arriving, students will have a period for confirmation of the requested courses. From the pre-selected courses, we recommend students to effectively attend around 4 courses.

Subject Enrollment

All the subjects you want to be enrolled in must be approved by the program coordinator. The International Office will mediate your request.

Curricula of Brazilian Portuguese as Second Language

If you are majoring in Portuguese Language, you may have interest in the curricula of the undergraduate major in Brazilian Portuguese as Second Language (Português do Brasil como Segunda Língua – PBSL).

Grading Scale

Consult the explanation of UnB Mention System here.

SR	II	MI	MM	MS	SS
No Presence	Inferior	Medium Inferior	Medium	Medium Superior	Superior
0.0	0.1 to 2.9	3.0 to 4.9	5.0 to 6.9	7.0 to 8.9	9.0 to 10.0

Approval grades are: SS, MS, and MM.

*SR mention is attributed to failure for absences, when the student did not attend a minimum of 75% of classes.
